

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OFFICE OF INVESTIGATIONS

CLOSEOUT MEMORANDUM

The suconne The au The id publis to those of the from t	arch paper ² a complainant (nitted NSF proposal nubject. complainant al research in arch publicat subject did not authors of the for approarch group. identified resished work of ose described e proposed residentified resished work of the previous arch groups arch gro	re related beyond coinci- independently of NSF) opposal, subsequently re According to the comples submitted proposal us this area was accomplision. The subject, or to the authorized the subject, or to the authorized the subject and the authorized finite research group. The in the submitted NSF presearch and the research work.	et, portions of the introduction idence to an NSF proposal contacted the subject to solution to be eviewed by panel and not fur obtainant, the recent research plainant, the recent research plainant, the recent research plainant, the recent research plainant, the recent research plainant in 1995, and this work of this NSF proposal. None of those of the identified research blication have been active as a proposal of the complainant or of the research paper are ded to duplicate the submitted of the identified research paper are ded to duplicate the submitted of the complainant in the publication of the complainant in described in the publication destribution, or action. According the content of the content of the content of the complainant in the setting that the publication destribution, or action. According the content of the content o	submitted by the complicit an evaluation of a aded. The complainant paper was published by design and well-established and well-established in the panel reviewers of the publication. The proposal is a logical to the text or experiment the procedures seem in is similar, but not established.	plainant. As state basic idea that exit suggested the sit suggested the sit y associates of the lished models (phe proposal and it of the proposal where a of the previous of joint publication gical iterative effects all designs in the standard for the precially unique, of	ed in the allegation, volved into the subject as a reviewer e subject, but not by roposal, page 7). The n the identified vere found to have a second work of this n.s. ort from past research publication field. The basic goal
researche consubmit for the submit for the submit for the submit for the submit researches. The submit to those of the from to the submit for	arch paper ² a complainant (nitted NSF proposal nubject. complainant al research in arch publicat subject did not authors of the for approarch group. identified resished work of ose described e proposed residentified resished work of the previous arch groups arch gro	re related beyond coinci- independently of NSF) opposal, subsequently re According to the comples submitted proposal us this area was accomplision. The subject, or to the authorized the subject, or to the authorized the subject and the authorized finite research group. The in the submitted NSF presearch and the research work.	idence to an NSF proposal ³ so contacted the subject ⁴ to soleviewed by panel and not fur plainant, the recent research pases a standard experimental cashed in 1995, and this work of this NSF proposal. None of thors of the identified research paper are proposal of the complainant and the described in the publication the publication have been active as the proposal of the complainant or soft the research paper are the described in the publication have been active as the proposal of the complainant or soft the research paper are the described in the publication has contacted the submitted for the complainant in the publication that the publication is contacted to some the publication that the publication is contacted to some the submitted that the publication is contacted to some the submitted that the publication is contacted to some the publication that the publication is contacted to some the submitted that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the complainant is the publication that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the publication that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the publication that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the publication that the publication that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the publication that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the publication that the publication that the publication is contacted to some the proposal of the proposal of the publication that the publication that the proposal of the proposal of the publication that the publicat	submitted by the complicit an evaluation of a aded. The complainant paper was published by design and well-established and well-established in the panel reviewers of the publication. The proposal is a logical to the text or experiment the procedures seem in is similar, but not established.	plainant. As state basic idea that exit suggested the sit suggested the sit y associates of the lished models (phe proposal and it of the proposal where a of the previous of joint publication gical iterative effects all designs in the standard for the precially unique, of	ed in the allegation, volved into the subject as a reviewer e subject, but not by roposal, page 7). The n the identified vere found to have a second work of this n.s. ort from past research publication field. The basic goal
The suconner The autresear. The idepublis to those of the from t	al research in arch publicate subject did netection with the authors of the for approarch group. The identified resished work to ose described a proposed resished work to the previous	this area was accomplision. of serve as a reviewer of the subject, or to the authorized identified research publication allege of this research group. The in the submitted NSF persearch and the research work.	of this NSF proposal. None of this NSF proposal. None of thors of the identified research blication have been active as a proposal of the complainant ors of the research paper are ded to duplicate the submitted of the proposal of the complainant of the complainant of the complainant of the complainant of the publication of the complainant of the publication of the publica	of the panel reviewers the publication. a group in the research tincludes five reference associates by virtue of the text or experiment, the procedures seem it is similar, but not estable to the procedure of the procedures seem is similar, but not estable to the procedure of t	of the proposal and in of the proposal which area of the previous of joint publication gical iterative efficial designs in the standard for the fipecially unique, of	rere found to have a us work of this n ⁵ . ort from past research publication field. The basic goal
The autresear. The idepublis to those of the from t	authors of the for appropriate	the subject, or to the authorized identified research publication allege and the subject and the authorized publication allege of this research group. The in the submitted NSF passearch and the research work.	thors of the identified research blication have been active as e proposal of the complainant nors of the research paper are ed to duplicate the submitted There is no direct overlap of proposal of the complainant, h described in the publication	ch publication. a group in the research tincludes five reference associates by virtue of NSF proposal is a log the text or experiment, the procedures seem is similar, but not estable.	ch area of lices to the previous of joint publication gical iterative effects al designs in the standard for the standard for the standard unique, of	us work of this n ⁵ . ort from past research publication field. The basic goal researd The identification of the from	for approarch group. I dentified resished work of ose described to the previous	ximately ten years. The the subject and the authories and the publication allege of this research group. The submitted NSF presearch and the research work.	e proposal of the complainant nors of the research paper are ed to duplicate the submitted There is no direct overlap of proposal of the complainant the described in the publication	t includes five reference associates by virtue of NSF proposal is a log the text or experiment, the procedures seem is similar, but not es	ices to the previous of joint publication of joint publication gical iterative efficial designs in the standard for the fipecially unique, of	ort from past research publication field. The basic goal publis to thos of the from t	ished work o ose described e proposed r the previous	f this research group. The in the submitted NSF persearch and the research work.	There is no direct overlap of proposal of the complainant in the publication	the text or experiment the procedures seem is similar, but not es	al designs in the standard for the fipecially unique, o	research publication ield. The basic goal
	•
² Red ³ Red ⁴ Red	dacted dacted. dacted dacted
* Red	1 . 1
	dacted					