Page 1 of 1

An NSF employee<sup>1</sup> hired under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act submitted a Form 1311, Non-Federal Travel Reimbursement Approval and Report to the National Science Foundation Office of General Counsel (OGC), which was rejected by OGC. The employee subsequently sought and received reimbursement for the travel from NSF. There were also apparent irregularities regarding the employee's Individual Research and Development travel.

The matter was referred to the employee's Directorate. The employee was interviewed by his Division Director<sup>2</sup> and provided adequate explanations regarding the travel and IRD issues.

Accordingly, this case is closed.
