CLOSEOUT MEMORANDUM

Case Number: I05010006

In January 2005, OIG received information that an NSF employee¹ had been advertising retail makeup for sale on the Announce Bulletin Board. A preliminary review identified three postings by the employee advertising the make-up items. It appeared that these postings were promoting a personal business in violation of NSF's policy regarding the personal use of NSF resources.

When the subject was contacted to schedule an interview she informed OIG that she was leaving NSF employment in April 2005 to accept a position outside of NSF. This information was confirmed with the subject's supervisor and based on the subject's change in employment it was determined that no action could be taken if the investigation concluded that the subject did violate NSF policy.

Accordingly, this case is closed.
